13 conseils pour votre CV

- Pour les jeunes diplômé.e.s, une page suffit
- Rédigez votre CV dans la langue de l'annonce
- L'information doit pouvoir se lire en 60 secondes
- En titre, évitez « Curriculum Vitae »
- La photo personnalise votre candidature. Veillez à fournir une photo de qualité (si possible prise par un professionnel). Évitez les «selfies»
- Utilisez les expressions adéquates dans le secteur visé
- Utilisez des mots-clés et des verbes d'action
- Restituez les points clés de votre parcours
- Présentez vos expériences professionnelles et votre formation académique de façon antéchronologique
- N'écrivez pas de phrases (sauf pour l'objectif professionnel)
- Adaptez votre objectif en fonction de ce qui est demandé et mentionnez certaines compétences plutôt que d'autres
- Faites relire votre CV par vos collègues et vos proches
- Un bon CV se doit d'être clair et lisible.

7 conseils pour le jour j

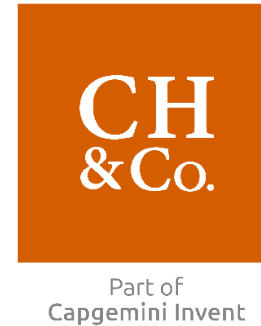

- Renseignez-vous sur les entreprises présentes
- Préparez une brève présentation orale, claire et précise de votre profil et votre projet professionnel (Pitch).
- Soyez vous-même
- Adaptez votre tenue
- Posez des questions ciblées: profils recherchés, opportunités de carrière, actualités concernant l'entreprise ...
- Écoutez attentivement les conseils donnés et n'oubliez pas de remercier votre interlocuteur
- Connectez-vous sur LinkedIn avec les personnes rencontrées
